

Councillors calls for fair treatment from district

TOWN councillors have called for West Dorset District Council to treat Lyme Regis fairly in discussions regarding the possible transfer of assets.

The district council has been holding discussions with town councils in the area for months, with regards to them taking on more assets and services, such as Tourist Information Centres (TICs) and public toilets.

The discussions have so far been kept largely under wraps and Lyme Regis councillors were told at the recent Strategy & Finance Committee meeting that no specifics had been put forward.

Members expressed concern at the slow pace of discussions and called for Lyme Regis to be treated the same as other West Dorset towns such as Bridport, which had already taken over its own TIC, and Sherborne, which is now running its own leisure centre.

Councillor Stephen Miller, chairman of the Strategy & Finance Committee, and town clerk John Wright are scheduled to meet again with West Dorset tomorrow (Thursday) and Councillor Brian Larcombe recently asked for an update on what was on the agenda.

Councillor Miller said that the meetings had consisted of "broad based discussions on the position of all the existing councils".

"Nothing is yet on the table with respect to specifics," he added.

"I have asked and I will ask again, it's time for specifics to be put on the table if anything is to be discussed with West Dorset with regards to a move for particular assets, particularly TICs and toilets."

Councillor Larcombe expressed concern that, unless specifics were discussed soon, they were going to "run out of time" before West Dorset District Council was scrapped in favour of a unitary authority in 2019.

The town clerk said that the district council had given them a "heads up" about the kind of things they would be willing to discuss, but these were the kind of things that the town council were expecting, such as TICs and toilets. He said that the local economy, street cleaning and grants currently provided by the district council to local organisations such as LymeForward had also been mentioned.

He added that it had been made clear that no revenue support would be offered for assets transferred to the town council, but a dowry or capital sum for some assets or services may be available.

"Both Councillor Miller and I pushed the issue of revenue support, which is really important," he continued.

"The transfer of positive, revenue-producing assets is not something we want off the table because, otherwise, we might have a dowry and some capital sums but we'll have grant funding for other organisations and be running toilets and a TIC. Our revenue bill may come to £100,000 a year."

Councillor Larcombe commented: "A dowry wouldn't go very far in that situation."

The town clerk added: "When there's something on the table that we can discuss with members we'll bring it back, but from their position they said about six months ago that they don't want to pursue any individual discussions until the whole issue of the unitary authority is clearer."

Mr Wright said that this was "something to be

Dorset Police scheme helps older drivers to stay safe on the roads

DORSET Police last month launched an 'Older Drivers Forum' designed to help keep older drivers on the road safely, for longer.

The forum has received public backing by scriptwriter and Dorset resident Lord Julian Fellowes - creator of 'Downton Abbey' - and is made up of experts in road safety from across the county, with representatives from emergency services, charities, local authorities and other specialists.

The scheme offers training, advice and guidance for those motorists who are keen to continue driving safely, and resources for those who feel that the time is right for them to 'retire' from getting behind the wheel.

With more than 96,000 full driving licence holders aged over 70 in Dorset, the aim is to inform older drivers about the risks they face and ways to reduce them, help to identify when the time has come to retire from driving and offer relevant advice to older drivers, their family and friends, and those within the medical profession.

A series of lunch events took

■ PC Heidi Moxam and Lord Julian Fellowes

place last month, with officers from the Dorset Police traffic department as well as other members of the forum, on hand to speak to older members of the community and their families.

Lord Julian Fellowes, who backs the scheme said: 'The Older Drivers Forum is about keeping people behind the wheel for as long as they can reasonably and safely be there. The moment we should consider retiring from driving comes to all of us and it must be reassuring to learn that there are now so many alternative methods of transport available and ways to get around than there used to be, and we can help with these.

'I think it's hard for children, but there does come a time when it is actually loving to persuade your parent that their driving career should be drawing to a close. They have to have the strength and the love to take that through.'

Police Constable Heidi Moxam, Road Casualty Reduction Officer for Dorset Police, said: 'In 2016, we had 125 collisions on Dorset roads where the driver was 70 years old or over, resulting in 217 casualties, including three who sadly lost their lives.

'It is vital we invest resources in helping older drivers to be safe on the road and provide guidance and support to those who need to consider alternative methods of transport.

'The forum also works to provide an alternative to prosecution for low level offences where a bespoke set of circumstances suggest the driver needs further motoring and health assessments.'

Representatives from Wessex Drivability, Age UK, police, fire, opticians, local authorities and many more were also on hand to offer advice.

Messages on bin lorries to keep residents informed

HELPING people to remember what rubbish can go into which wheellie bin or recycling box can be a headache for local authorities trying to increase recycling rates and divert waste from costly treatment or landfill.

If residents put the wrong items into the recycling bins and the bin crews are unable to spot it in time, a whole batch of recycling can be spoiled, potentially leading to additional cost to the council due to poorer quality of the batch or even damage to sorting facilities.

And if confused householders give up and throw most - or all - of their rubbish into general waste bins, the council will end up footing a higher bill for waste treatment or landfill tax, which is charged per tonne and goes up every year, funded by your council tax.

The Dorset Waste Partnership (DWP), which collects and disposes of rubbish for over 200,000 households across the county of Dorset, has enlisted the help of Spedian to help get the message over about what can be recycled.

The partnership of seven councils has fitted Spedian re-usable, lightweight graphics systems to the sides of 25 of its bin lorries which visit every street where collections take place.

Messages based around the theme "Right Stuff, Right Bin" will be prominently displayed for all to see as part of the partnership's ongoing public information campaign.

Messages can be tailored to address any particular issues which may arise because the Spedian graphics panels can be quickly removed and replaced with a fresh message without damaging the vehicle in any way. Graphics can then be stored for use another day, making them ideal for seasonal campaigns.

The Dorset Waste Partnership was formed in 2011 to save councils money and roll out a new service across the county. Kerbside recycling services were fully delivered to the whole county by October 2015 whereby every household in the county receives exactly the same service. Previously, in common with most counties, district/borough councils chose how to collect rubbish and the county council was responsible for disposing of it.

The partnership achieved the highest county-wide recycling rate in 2015/16 in England and recycled nearly 60 per cent of its waste compared to a national average of 43.9 per cent; and continues to strive to improve performance and save money with a recycling target of 65 per cent by 2025.

Karyn Punchard, Director of the Dorset Waste Partnership, said: "We have made great strides towards our recycling targets and are very grateful for residents' co-operation. Now we have to optimise what we do to reach our targets.

"Diverting recyclable materials from landfill and treatment will help to reduce council tax bills while safeguarding the very special Dorset environment.

"Putting messages on the sides of our refuse and recycling vehicles provides an important marketing tool for us. It is an easy way to ensure our messages have a high profile and are seen on a regular basis all across the county."

Increasing levels of food recycling is a priority for the partnership. The DWP provides weekly collections of food using 23 litre brown outdoor bins and small household caddies for use indoors to encourage recycling.

Despite most residents separating out their food in their brown food waste bin, food waste still takes up one fifth of Dorset's rubbish bins, by weight. This is bad for the environment and the tax-payer, as waste mixed with food is either sent away for expensive treatment or goes to landfill, creating harmful gases and costing more in Landfill Tax.

■ SALES of a Poppy Cheddar made by Dorset Cheesemakers, Ford Farm, is set to raise at least £11,000 for this year's Royal British Legion appeal.

A total of 15,000 of the distinctive cheeses, aged for up to nine months before being pressed into the shape of The Royal British Legion's iconic poppy logo, and then coated in a shiny poppy-red wax are mainly on sale at Tesco branches nationwide.

Each individual cheddar is being sold at £2 with a minimum of 75p for each one sold donated directly to the Poppy Appeal.

Last year, with the support of Tesco, Ford Farm raised £8.5k for the Poppy Appeal. This year, they are hoping to increase that figure to over 11k.

The Poppy Cheddars are made using Ford Farm's award winning West Country Farmhouse PDO Cheddar which is made by hand from milk sourced from local herds.

New director hopes to place theatre at heart of Lyme Regis

GABBY Rabbitts has been appointed as the new director of the Marine Theatre in Lyme Regis, marking a major step forward in placing the arts venue at the heart of the community.

Gabby, who was born in Bridport and lives in Lyme Regis, took on the position last week following the recent departure of Clemmie Reynolds.

She was formerly the director of the Electric Palace in Bridport, which she took from debt to profit in two years, and is the founder of Bridport Children's Festival.

Having successfully turned the Electric Palace from a cinema to a live entertainment venue with comedy, music and community-led events, Gabby plans a similar entertainment programme for the Marine.

She said: "I passionately believe in arts for all people. While the Marine is called a theatre, its remit will be far broader than theatrical productions for a few. It's an entertainment venue to cater for the whole community."

"From the new season in January, there will be events that cater for the widest possible tastes that will see participation from everyone in the town and surrounding area. Whether it's a folk gig, comedy night or a children's film, the Marine will offer something to everyone."

The starting point for this new chapter in the venue's history is a major audience survey that will give everyone the chance to have their views heard and make suggestions for new types of events and other areas for improvement.

"I am aware that some relationships between the theatre and the community need some work; that's why I am in listening mode. I will personally read every response from our survey," said Gabby.

The survey is available on the Marine's website and a paper version can be picked up from the Tourist Information Centre and the theatre itself.

The Marine already has some practical improvements planned, with work starting early next year on the foyer and the toilets.

Gabby commented: "It's important to us that the venue is open to all in the community. That's why we'll be refurbishing the toilets that will be accessible to wheelchair users."

There are also plans to launch a new website next year.

"With internet usage now on a wide variety of devices, it's vital that we can communicate efficiently with everyone to maximise ticket sales – our new website launched next year will make this much easier," said Gabby.

The new director is enthusiastic about protecting and energising historic buildings as vibrant cultural legacies for communities to enjoy.

She commented: "There is already a good deal to be positive about. Lyme Regis is lucky to have an entertainment venue with such a rich history. In only a few days I have seen sell-out events and a solid team of staff and dedicated volunteers, which works hard for the theatre and the town."

"There are some great events al-

■ GABBY Rabbitts, new director of the Marine Theatre in Lyme Regis, is hoping to make it an entertainment venue for the whole community ready planned such as the Beer Festival, and shows by Steve Knightley, Robin Ince and Henry Blofeld".

Nigel Clegg, chairman of the LymeArts Community Trust, which runs the theatre, said of the appointment: "While working at the Electric Palace, Gabby managed to treat Bridport to big names, such as The Proclaimers or Russell Howard, while celebrating close relationships with community groups like Bridport Musical Theatre and the Pantomime Players."

"The trust shares the same vision – of building the venue as a destination for performers of an outstanding reputation, while celebrating the region's own cultural practice."

mindful of" when the town council set its budget for future years.

Councillor John Broom argued: "Why can't we get anything from West Dorset? Bridport get the toilets from West Dorset, Sherborne gets their leisure centre. What are we doing wrong?"

Councillor Stan Williams replied: "They don't like us."

Councillor Broom was told that Bridport was not given its toilets with a dowry, but did now run its own TIC.

Councillor Miller commented: "The point is and you're quite right to raise it, everyone should be treated the same. No one should be treated differently or in an adverse way."

Councillor Owen Lovell said he would not vote for any transfer of assets, unless the town council had some way to cover its costs.

"I will not vote for us to take on anything unless we're treated equally as Dorchester, Bridport or Sherborne," he said.

"I don't care what they say; they can say no assets but they've already given assets to Bridport, so they can say that all they like. When push comes to shove, that's how I shall vote. I shan't vote unless we have something to see us survive what it's going to cost us."

Councillor Larcombe added: "And this is just for assets, on the back of this there will also be devolution of services and cutbacks. We have to keep money back in our budget."

Councillor Lovell replied: "Or we let the local authority of West Dorset close them. I will remind everyone that is an option and we should make it clear that it's them closing them and not Lyme Regis Town Council."

Lifeboat crew search for 'wreck'

LYME Regis lifeboat crew were called out on Thursday afternoon to help with a shoreline search along Chesil Beach, following reports of debris that could have come from a wreck.

Weymouth all-weather lifeboat and a coastguard helicopter were also involved in the search.

The Lyme Regis lifeboat launched at 3.30pm to assist Weymouth lifeboat and a coastguard team from Wyke Regis. There had been sightings of a number of floating boxes and other debris off Chesil beach and Ferrybridge.

During the search, a number of fishing boxes and other debris were retrieved from the sea but there was no sign of a wreck. The coastguard called off the search at 5pm.

Organisers of first Lyme Slime Festival say event was a 'spooktacular' success

■ WARMING UP: Scary fairy Jane Dunford from Boogie Bounce Xtreme leads a warm-up ahead of the fun run and, below, runners set off on Marine Parade

THE inaugural Lyme Slime Halloween Festival has been deemed a huge success, with traders enjoying an extremely busy half term as visitors travelled from across the South West and further afield to enjoy this new spooky addition to the Lyme Regis calendar of events.

Lyme Regis Town Mill, the Marine Theatre and Lyme Regis Museum all provided fun Halloween themed activities and events all week to entertain families and the Bloor Homes Spine-tingling Town Trail was also very popular.

The second Lyme Slime Fun Run, topping off the week on Sunday, again proved very popular as 152 children and adults dressed as zombies, ghosts and witches tackled the course along the promenade.

Entrants faced various Halloween themed challenges along the way, including the 'Radioactive Liquid Station', the 'Sticky Spiders Web' and the disgusting slime at the Baboo Gelato 'Trick or Treat Table'.

Scary Fairy Jane from local exercise class Boogie Bounce Xtreme treated the participants to a spooky mass warm up and the Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor, Michaela

Ellis awarded prizes for the best male and female fancy dress.

All those finishing the race received goodie bags of chocolate medals, drinks donated by Tesco and a vanilla lolly dipped in blood supplied by Baboo Gelato. Profits from the fun run will be going to this year's event charity, The Word Forest Organisation.

Sally Raynes, event director at Wacky Nation, said: "We have been thrilled with how many local businesses and community organisations have joined with us to ensure that the Lyme Slime Halloween Festival was so entertaining for all the families involved throughout the half term holiday week.

"It was wonderful to again see all the effort that everyone went to with their fancy dress at the Lyme Slime Fun Run on Sunday and lovely to see everyone having such a great time. A special thank you must go to the students from Woodroffe School who offered encouragement to all the competitors along the route."

The Lyme Slime Halloween Festival will return in 2018 and organisers promise it will be even bigger and a lot scarier.

Frightful fundraiser for Fortuneswell Trust

■ DRESSED TO IMPRESS: Barry and Suzanne Usher won best fancy dress for their Count and Countess Dracula costumes

A FUN and freaky night at Lyme Regis Golf Club was enjoyed by 100 members and guests as the club captains hosted a Halloween ball for their chosen charity of the year.

The tricks were provided by Lyme Regis magician Mr Moustache and the treats were provided by the golf club's resident chef Steve and his team, who created a special Halloween menu for the occasion, including spicy pumpkin soup and gory goats cheese and devil dates pudding to name a few of the festive delights on offer.

Following dinner, guests took part in an auction hosted by local TV auctioneer Graham Barton, who had those attending digging deep in their pockets for the Fortuneswell Cancer Trust, based at Dorset County Hospital.

The auction lots included weekend breaks, lunch at the Volunteer Inn and dinner at the Harbour Inn, a signed cricket bat by Hampshire's winning team, Liverpool football tickets and the star lot of dinner for six cooked in your own home by the golf club's chef, which was sold for £500.

The competition for best fancy dress was won by Suzanne and Barry Usher, who looked frightfully good at Countess and Count Dracula, and the evening was topped off with a disco.

Captain Lee Caddy, who co-hosted the event with ladies captain Susan Moore, said he was overwhelmed by the support of local businesses who donated to the auction and raffle, which helped raise a total of £2,500 for the Fortuneswell Cancer Trust, which provides care for those suffering from cancer across Dorset.

Thanks go to staff at the golf club and all those who supported the event.

Double Halloween disco raises funds for charity

TWO Halloween discos raised funds for or five different charities on Friday evening. The Woodmead Halls in Lyme Regis hosted two discos on Friday evening, starting with a children's party organised by Tracey West and Jo Fowler.

The well attended event saw plenty of ghosts, ghouls, witches and wizards enjoying an evening of spooky fun (pictured above) and raised £566.50 for four different charities - Prostate Cancer UK, Anthony Nolan, Children with Cancer UK and Make A Wish.

Following the children's party, it was the turn of the grown ups to celebrate Halloween thanks to a second disco hosted by the Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Michaela Ellis and husband Alan (pictured left).

The disco raised funds for the mayor's chosen charity of the year, St Michael's Parish Church.

Music was provided at both events by Chris Hutchings of Wessex Star Disco, who donated his time and services for free.

Painting the town pink for Cancer Research

■ STAFF at the View From Newspapers dressed in pink fancy dress for the occasion

Francesca Evans

Editor | francesca@viewnews.co.uk

SHOPS and businesses backed a campaign to turn Lyme Regis pink on Friday, to mark Breast Cancer Awareness Month and raise funds for Cancer Research UK.

The annual Turn Lyme Pink day was organised by the Lyme Regis branch of Cancer Research UK and was supported by several local businesses, including the Tourist Information Centre, Your World Travel, Bell Cliff Restaurant, Lyme Bay Dentistry, Serendip, Pebbles Boutique, House of Flowers, Danni's 2 hair salon, Lyme Regis Brewery, The Fisherman's Wife, Aroma Cafe and the View From Newspapers office.

Branch volunteers held their own fundraiser on the day - a coffee morning and cake sale at the Baptist Church, which raised £250, and the total raised on the day is expected to exceed £500 when collections from all participating businesses have been counted.

Turn Lyme Pink day organiser Francesca Evans commented: "With more local shops and businesses backing this year's campaign than any previous year, we're hoping to have raised more than £500 for Cancer Research UK."

"Thanks to all the local traders who took part, some of whom were overwhelmed by the support customers showed for this important cause."

The Lyme Regis branch of Cancer Research UK has raised more than £150,000 since it was established in 2007. Other upcoming events in aid of the charity include a curry night on the seafront to coincide with the town's bonfire and firework night celebrations but tickets for this have now sold out.

There will also be a Christmas bingo on Friday, December 1st and a Christmas party on Saturday, December 16th with full details to be announced soon.

Get your Cards for Good Causes at tourist offices

WEST Dorset District Council-run tourist information centres (TICs) are now selling charity Christmas cards

Dorchester, Lyme Regis and Sherborne TICs are all selling the cards from registered national charity network Cards for Good Causes, which sells Christmas cards for more than 25 charities including Cancer Research UK, British Heart Foundation and RNLI.

Local charities such as Julia's House Children's Hospices and Dorset Wildlife Trust will also be supported.

In the past ten years, charities have received more than £40million from Cards for Good Causes, representing at least 70p in every pound, out of which the charities pay for the production and distribution of their Christmas cards and any VAT.

Councillor Peter Shorland, chairman of West Dorset District Council, said: "It's almost that time of year when people are getting ready for the festive period. Why not visit one of our tourist information centres and stock up on Christmas cards. Sales from the cards will help some great charities?"

Centres offer information about Christmas events, sell theatre tickets and tokens and help visitors make the most of their visit to West Dorset.

French & Wilder

New interior design shop brings a touch of France to Beaminster

A STYLISH new interior design shop opened its doors in Beaminster on Friday 27th October. French & Wilder, owned by Nathan Wilder, contains a carefully selected and constantly changing range of beautiful French items with a modern twist.

Nathan said, "I love the French style of interior design as it's always elegant and sophisticated. Sometimes I find items that are beautiful just as they are, but some I upcycle to give them a new lease of life and to enhance their appeal."

The shop stocks a wide variety of items including furniture, mirrors, cushions, fabric and other decorative items.

Nathan, who lives in Crewkerne, recently appeared in an episode of the Channel 4 programme, Escape to the Chateau, where his partner, Michael, romantically proposed to him.

"The proposal was such a surprise and it was such an amazing setting. Meeting Dick and Angel Strawbridge was an unbelievable inspiration and this was what really led me to follow my passion and open the shop."

In addition to items sourced from France, Nathan also sells French-inspired crafts, including some of his own work.

"I hope to showcase my bags and upholstered furniture in the shop. I use a lot of French fabrics and decorative elements, so the final products have a unique French feel, but with a modern twist."

The shop is at Unit 5, Lynden Way, Beaminster, next to the main square.

Horticultural society hands out cheques totalling £1,650

UPLYME and Lyme Regis Horticultural Society had handed out cheques to four charities, totalling £1,650.

The money was raised at the society's successful Summer Show, and other events throughout the year including a visit from Radio 4's 'Gardener's Question Time', which was broadcast from Uplyme Village Hall earlier this year.

The cheques were presented by society chairman Brian Tomsett at the group's autumn show last week.

Those receiving donations included Stan and Shirley Williams from Axe Valley Ring & Ride (£500), Barbara Kidson from Uplyme Village Hall (£500), Anne Hardman from Uplyme Help at Hand (£250) and Carole Halden from the cancer charity FORCE (£400).

Mrs Halden was also given a gift to mark her long-standing membership of the horticultural society.

The cheque presentation was held at the society's first autumn show for some years, held at Uplyme Village Hall last week, which also included a well-supported bring and share supper.

Autumn walk for pre-school tots

CHILDREN from Uplyme Pre-School enjoyed an autumn walk before their half term break. The youngsters enjoyed walking around the local fields finding blackberries, rose hips and hawthorn berries. They also spotted several butterflies. Uplyme Pre-School is holding an open morning on Friday, November 3rd from 9.15am to 10.30am and all are welcome to attend. Anyone wishing to visit the pre-school who cannot make this date, call 01297 24318 to make an appointment.

Residents backs Neighbourhood Plan

UPLYME Neighbourhood Plan will be officially adopted after residents voted in favour of it in a referendum last week.

The plan, which outlines how the parish of Uplyme should be developed in future years, will be accepted by East Devon District Council after 86 per cent of those voting in the referendum gave it their approval.

The turnout of parish electors was 25 per cent.

Councillor Ian Thomas, East Devon district councillor for the Trinity ward, which includes Uplyme, commented: "The plan will be 'made' at our next East Devon Cabinet meeting. Congratulations and thanks to our Neighbourhood Plan Team who put an enormous amount of excellent work into this well presented document."

"It will now be used by East Devon District Council in the determination of future planning applications."

The final draft of the Neighbourhood Plan, which residents voted on, can be viewed online at www.uplymeparishcouncil.org

WEAR YOUR POPPY WITH PRIDE

WE WILL REMEMBER THEM

CONTINUING our regular series commemorating the 100th anniversaries of the deaths of all men from Lyme Regis and the surrounding areas who died in the First World War, we remember Frank Summers, originally from Stockland. With thanks to Vernon Rattenbury from the Royal British Legion for the research.

FRANK SUMMERS

Private, 116th Company, Machine Gun Corps, Service No. 103065
Born on September 1897 in Stockland, Devon, and died November 6th 1917 in Flanders, Belgium

Frank enlisted in the Duke of Cornwall's Light Infantry but at some point transferred to the 116th Machine Gun Company which was formed at Grantham on March 1st 1916. They moved to France and joined 39th Division at Loins on May 18th 1916 and took part in the following actions: Battle of the Somme, July to November 1916; Battle of Passchendaele, July to November 1917

The son of Henry and Mary Summers of Dowlands Cottage, Rousdon, he has no known grave and is commemorated on the Tyne Cot Memorial, Zonnebeke, Belgium, panel 154 to 159 and 163A and is also commemorated on the Rousdon and Axmouth memorials.

Lyme to honour war dead

THE 96 men of Lyme Regis who made the supreme sacrifice in two world wars will be honoured in a series of Remembrance events next weekend.

Members of the Lyme Regis branch of the Royal British Legion will congregate at the HMS Formidable memorial in the cemetery at 9.30am on Saturday, November 11th where a wreath will be laid on behalf of the townsfolk.

HMS Formidable was torpedoed in Lyme Bay on January 1st 1915 with the loss of many seamen, some of whom were buried in the Lyme cemetery.

Legion officials will then move to Anning Road where another wreath will be laid at the Polish War Memorial during short service at 10.15am.

The Reverend Jane Skinner, branch chaplain, will conduct proceedings at both these events.

It being the 11th day of the 11th month, when hostilities ceased during the First World War, the Reverend Skinner will also conduct an Armistice Day service at the town's war memorial in George's Square, Monmouth Street, where two minutes silence will be observed at 11am and wreaths laid by the Mayor, Councillor Michaela Ellis, and the president of the Lyme branch of the Royal British Legion, Philip Evans. The Last Post will be played by Dennis Bye.

The town's main Remembrance service will be held at St Michael's Parish Church at 10am on Sunday, November 12th.

Royal British Legion members, together with representatives of uniformed organisations in the town, will gather at the entrance to Langmoor Gardens in Pound Street at 9.30am for a parade through the town to the church marshalled by former serving soldier, Kevin Taylor. The Roll of Honour will be delivered by the branch president.

The Royal British Legion Standard will be carried by the branch's new deputy standard bearer, Kelsey Ellis, 18, daughter of the mayor and her husband, Alan Ellis.

Kelsey is following in the footsteps of her grandfather, the late Michael Emmett, who was the branch standard bearer for many years, and her auntie, Sarah Horton, who is the women's standard bearer in Bridport.

It will be Kelsey's first official duty after undergoing training.

The branch standard bearer, Jon Hunt, will be taking part in the parade as a macebearer, standing in for Councillor Derek Hallett who is unable to take part due to ill health.

The mayor will march with the main parade and other town councillors will process from the Guildhall.

After the service, the parade will process down Monmouth Street, passing the war memorial, and into Cobb Gate square where the mayor will thank all organisations for attending before being dismissed.

Afterwards the Legion will be serving a buffet lunch at Lyme Regis Football Club, organised by the branch's new events officer, Shelley Larcombe. Tickets at £5 for adults or £3 for children are available by calling 07967 112396.

Spurs fan wins shirt at Arsenal game

■ SPURS' fan Jon Matthews has been presented with his favourite team's away shirt - thanks to Tottenham's arch enemies, Arsenal. Jon won first prize in the raffle to win any club shirt of his choice, held at an Arsenal Charity XI versus Lyme Regis Select XI match in September, which raised more than £3,000 for Lyme Regis Football Club's development fund. Jon, one of the club's youth team managers, is pictured receiving the Spurs' away shirt from Francesca Evans, one of the organisers of the Arsenal game.

Recognition for long-serving Home Library Service volunteer

■ LONG-STANDING volunteer David Jones was presented with a medal at a coffee morning to promote the Home Library Service

A SPECIAL coffee morning was held at Lyme Regis Library earlier this month to promote the Home Library Service and to celebrate one volunteer's outstanding long service.

David Jones was presented with the Royal Voluntary Service's 15 year medal by Lisa Knight, Royal Voluntary Service community development & operations manager for the South West.

David started delivering books from Lyme Regis Library to housebound people in the area with his wife, and has continued doing it on his own in recent years. He spoke about the joy it brings to the people he visits, and how rewarding he finds his volunteering role.

Lisa Knight said: "I would like to thank David and the other Royal Voluntary Service volunteers in Lyme Regis for their hard work and commitment, and the difference they make to some of the most isolated people in our community."

The Home Library Service is provided by Dorset Library Service, and delivered by Royal Voluntary Service volunteers. It is free to anybody who cannot easily get to their local library, and volunteers visit every three weeks with books (ordinary or large print) or talking books chosen individually for each person.

Anybody interested in receiving this service should contact the Royal Voluntary Service office on 01305 236666 or Lyme Regis Library on 01297 443151 to arrange a visit.

The Royal Voluntary Service also provides a Befriending Service in Lyme Regis and Bridport. To find out more contact David Sarson on 07786 635 183 or Celia Gavins on 07834 653 360.

Town Mill asking for public's vote to fund community workshop space

THE Town Mill in Lyme Regis has been shortlisted to receive up to £10,000 from the Aviva Community Fund and is now asking for the public's vote.

The mill has been shortlisted to receive a grant of between £5,001 and £10,000 for its community and learning space project.

The Town Mill Trust is hoping to refurbish, furnish and equip the Bakehouse Attic space at the historic mill complex, to run innovative and stimulating educational courses and community workshops for people of all ages.

The trust commented: "Renovating a space on a medieval site presents challenges to ensure we can provide a high standard of health and safety for the users, whilst preserving the special historic character and interest of the mill buildings.

"We are aiming to make a dedicated, multi-purpose space safe and accessible, redecorate it, purchase appropriate furniture and equipment to be able to host art and craft, cooking workshops and school/club visits to the mill to learn about its history and how flour is made.

"We need to purchase art and design materials and install a small kitchen area with cooking equipment. We also need classroom furniture and stationery.

"Local children and adults have been attending our art clubs at the mill but we do not currently have fit-for-purpose space to continue these in: funding for this project would enable us to provide a purpose-built space, proper equipment and we could extend the capacity and subjects of our courses to more people of different ages and abilities. Our community could come and learn to bake here together, or do art, history or milling workshops.

"When we currently run fundraising baking or art events here at the mill, the demand to participate far outstrips our current capacity. For example, our volunteers recently made more than 60 loaves of bread with children over a two day period, using just one small oven! We were disappointed that we had to turn some families away as we did not have the space or facilities to bake with everyone who visited us.

"Our established after-school art club, run by volunteers, is already full with several local children on the waiting list for a space. We would be delighted to share our amazing venue with more people and equipping a safe, purpose-built space would enable us to do that.

"We have already had booking enquiries about this space to run creative writing workshops, health and well-being courses, cookery and art clubs, as well as providing meeting space for other community support groups.

"Funds raised by hiring the space, or by running clubs and courses, will be carefully managed by the Town Mill Trust and used to help secure the future of the historic watermill and our ancient mill buildings, so we can continue to keep them open for our local community and the wider world to enjoy."

The Town Mill Trust is now asking for the local community to back its funding bid by voting for it online. Voting will remain open until Saturday, November 18th and supporters can vote for the same project 10 times by visiting <http://bit.ly/2zklUbs>

Exploring colour in art exhibitions

THREE artists will be exhibiting their latest paintings that explore and exploit colour in a variety of ways at the Town Mill galleries in Lyme Regis in the coming days.

Philip Clayton and Duncan Harris, in their second joint effort, will showcase their recent landscapes in a semi-abstracted style that places full emphasis on colour and on our responses to its vividness. Their showcase at the Malthouse Gallery runs from November 2nd to 15th, and both artists will often be in attendance to discuss their work with visitors.

Over at the Courtyard Gallery, from November 3rd to 8th, Russian-born but Lyme-based portrait artist Maria Barbashina will be holding a solo exhibition of her engaging portraits and vibrant still lifes.

She said: "My Russian art education provided me with the classical skills of depicting the object, while studying in England has since added an emotional dimension to my work."

These exhibitions will be open daily from 10.30am to 4.30pm, admission is free. See www.townmillarts.co.uk for further details.

Russian diplomat to give talk for U3A

A DIPLOMAT who served twice at the UK's Moscow Embassy during extraordinary times will be sharing his experiences of Russia and the Russians with the local University of the Third Age (U3A) on Friday, November 10th.

Sir David Ratford's distinguished career covered British embassies in Prague, Mogadishu, Moscow, Paris and Copenhagen before he became UK Ambassador to Norway between 1990 and 1994.

Trained as a Russian interpreter during National Service, he studied Russian at Cambridge. His years in Moscow took in the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia, the expulsion from London of 105 KGB officers and tit-for-tat expulsions from the British Embassy, the death of Brezhnev, the first months of Gorbachev, the shooting down of Korean Airlines flight 007 and the 'exfiltration' of the KGB double agent, Oleg Gordievsky.

He will illuminate Russian society through some of the individual Russians he met, varying from Gorbachev to humble Russian émigrés whose life-stories can be heartrending. The suffering of Russia and so many individual Russians, Sir David says, is almost unimaginable for us British.

This talk will begin at 11am at the Woodmead Halls. Beforehand, at 10am, the U3A's annual general meeting will be held, including a summary of the year's activities across the many groups, and the opportunity to ask questions, make suggestions and elect the committee. During the coffee break at 10.30am, members can book tickets for the Christmas quiz on Friday, December 8th.

Entry to the talk is free for U3A members or £2 for non-members.

View from the churches

BANANA fritters made to an African recipe were on the table for an afternoon tea with Ed and Audrey Standhaft. The occasion was a presentation about the Matthew Rusike children's home in Zimbabwe that the Golden Cap Team of churches are supporting as our charity project abroad.

We enjoyed a variety of cooking and remembered how restricted is the diet of most people in Zimbabwe. Maize dried, pounded into flour and then mixed with water into a paste and cooked eaten with some vegetable and, very occasionally, some meat is the staple food.

Now we understood why the home had sent us pictures of the vegetable patch and tomato plants growing taller than the lady standing between the rows. A man from Australia had come and installed a small irrigation system and constructed a 'green house' with plastic sheeting to protect plants from the cold nights and increase the growing season. Add some top soil and they were in production and enjoying the vegetables of their labours!

So, help comes from around the world and unexpected places, even south-west Dorset. For more information on the project do contact Ed and Audrey Standhaft: edstandhaft@sky.com. It was helpful to see pictures of the children and the home and school where they are supported.

I expect many will have been invited to choose between 'trick or treat' as visitors arrive in all sorts of surprising outfits - a long tradition to laugh in the face of death and all that frightens us by dressing up and mimicking. Let's keep the tricks on the light side too! And we have nothing to be afraid of because Jesus has been through death and hell. Christians can turn round and ask "Death, where is thy sting?"

Halloween is named for the days that follow it - All Saints' Day and All Souls'. An opportunity to commemorate those who have died is offered at St Michael's Parish Church, Lyme Regis, on Sunday, November 5th at 3.30pm. Remember and give thanks for those who have given us life, treasure their memories and light a candle. All welcome.

Stop men dying too young

Join the movement for men's health

THIS MOVEMBER BE THE DIFFERENCE IN A MAN'S LIFE

MEN ARE FACING A HEALTH CRISIS THAT ISN'T BEING TALKED ABOUT. THEY ARE DYING TOO YOUNG, BEFORE THEIR TIME. WE'RE TAKING ACTION AND WE NEED YOUR HELP!

MOVEMBER FOUNDATION

WE'RE the only charity tackling men's health on a global scale, year round. We're addressing some of the biggest health issues faced by men: prostate cancer, testicular cancer, and mental health and suicide prevention.

We know what works for men, and how to find and fund the most innovative research to have both a global and local impact. We're independent of government funding, so we can challenge the status quo and invest quicker in what works. In 13 years we've funded more than 1,200 men's health projects around the world.

OUR STRATEGY IS ALL ABOUT GOING WHERE MEN NEED US MOST: We know what works for men. We're transforming the way research into men's health is done, and the way health services reach and support men.

We don't take government funding, so we can challenge the status quo and invest quicker in what works.

WE REPORT ON EVERY INITIATIVE WE FUND SO YOU CAN SEE THE EFFECT YOUR DONATIONS ARE HAVING: Thanks to

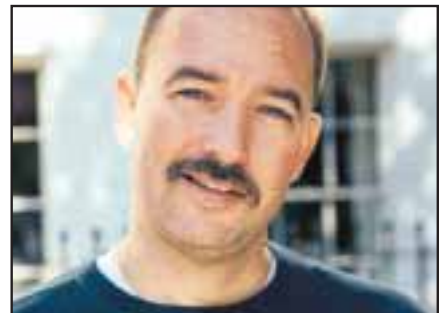

By 2030 we'll reduce the number of men dying prematurely by 25%.

Help us stop men dying too young. Join the movement.

the support of Mo Bros and Mo Sistas we've funded more than 1,200 projects saving and improving the lives of men all around the world. Since 2003, we've committed ourselves to helping men live happier, healthier, longer lives. Millions have joined us.

FROM 30 MOUSTACHES TO 5 MILLION, WE COULDN'T HAVE DONE IT WITHOUT YOU: From humble beginnings back in 2003 the Movember movement has grown to be a truly global one, inspiring support from over 5 million Mo Bros and Mo Sistas.

The Movember Foundation wouldn't be where it is without the enthusiasm of all of those men and women around the globe. We're committed to keeping things fresh, keeping the community informed, and always being transparent and accountable in our practices.

Weymouth has the worst weekly wages

WEYMOUTH and Portland has the dubious distinction of having the lowest average weekly wages in the country.

The rate is just £282.90 a week according to the latest data from the Office of National Statistics. And it's still falling. The average weekly pay fell by a whopping 8.3 per cent last year.

The average weekly wage in Weymouth and Portland is £25 below the next worst in Rother near Sheffield.

When taking inflation into account, South West workers are still £38 a week worse off than they were before the financial crash. The ONS figures show that for the year to April 2017 real wages in the South West were 8.5 per cent below their 2008 level.

Nationally, inflation has overtaken wage growth for the last six months, so the South West TUC is concerned that next year could be even worse.

TUC Regional Secretary for the South West Nigel Costley said: "Most families still haven't recovered from the financial crash, yet their pay packets are now taking another hammering. It's leaving working people facing hardship and getting deeper into debt. Weymouth and Portland seems stuck in an economy that can only offer poor pay and the failure of government to address the pay squeeze has left communities feeling abandoned."

"Public sector workers have had it especially hard, with real pay cuts for seven long years. The Chancellor must use next month's budget to give them the pay rise they've earned."

"He should also use the budget to help bring great jobs to the South West, by investing in skills and infrastructure. And he must help low-paid workers by raising the minimum wage to £10 an hour as soon as possible."

Rogue traders conned pensioner out of £120,000

FOUR rogue traders have been jailed after conning an elderly Wimborne woman out of her £120,000 life savings.

John Hart, aged 61 and of Hanington Place in Bournemouth, Daniel Baker, 40 and of Cartwright Close in Bournemouth, Philip Budden, 37 and of Malmesbury Park Road in Bournemouth, and Daniel Sherwood, 34 and of Ringwood Road in Bournemouth, were all sentenced at Bournemouth Crown Court on Monday, October 30th.

Hart was jailed for six years and four months, Baker for two years and eight months, Budden for four years and six months and Sherwood was handed a five-year prison term.

Hart and Budden pleaded guilty to fraud by false representation and Baker admitted money laundering offences at a hearing at the same court on Monday, October 2nd. Sherwood was found guilty of two money laundering offences following a trial earlier this month.

The case related to the theft of £120,000 from a vulnerable elderly woman between March 2013 and July 2015.

The victim, who is now aged 88, paid out the money by making cheques for work that had either not been completed or had been poorly completed and she had been excessively charged.

Officers from Dorset Police were alerted to the offences when on information was received from Lloyds Bank in Ferndown raising concerns about transactions on the victim's account.

The victim was initially contacted by Hart, who enquired about installing house insulation as part of a government scheme. This resulted in her paying Hart £56,400 over the course of two years for work that was not needed. Budden also contacted the victim and obtained £24,059 in cheques for poor and unnecessary work.

An unidentified man who claimed to work for the local authority attended the victim's home and said he had found a water leak which had been traced to her address. The victim was asked to pay a total of £40,400 for the work to be repaired. There was no evidence of any work ever having taken place. Baker admitted to receiving the money but claimed he did not go to the address or meet the victim. This was not disputed by the prosecution, which also accepted that there was no evidence linking Baker to Hart and Budden.

Sherwood was found guilty of receiving some of the money received by Baker.

The victim paid for further work to her home including repairs to her roof, insulation, damp proofing and general work around the house and garden. Independent experts ruled that the prices quoted were highly excessive and the work had either not been carried out or was of poor quality.

Soul Food in Weymouth is looking for more volunteers

■ A WEYMOUTH charity which feeds the town's homeless has launched an urgent appeal for volunteers.

Soul Food is based at the back of The Prayer House in Newstead Road.

They provide meals, showers and donated clothes to rough sleepers.

On Christmas Day they even provide a two-course meal made up entirely from donations and cooked and served by volunteers. Ray Hallmark works at Soul

Food, she told Wessex FM: "We are rather short of helpers at the moment and we do need help. We need people who are able to ladel out food, help prepare food and cook and must be good and accepting of other people, regardless of their circumstance".

Ray says the lack of volunteers means they're having to make some tough choices: "It does mean that we are busy doing the practical side, rather than doing the counselling, the listening and the comforting side."

Little tern breaks breeding records on Chesil Beach

ONE of our smallest and most elegant seabirds has broken recent breeding records at its sole South West England stronghold on Chesil Beach with up to 73 chicks taking to the skies.

Thirty-eight pairs of little terns bred on the pebbles of Chesil Beach this summer, and up to 73 chicks fledged, a recent record number of young for the colony and making it one of the most successful sites in UK.

Volunteers have once again played a key role in the Little Tern Recovery Project's success, with 56 people devoting hours of their time to watching nests, and helping make sure the vulnerable birds were not disturbed by passers-by, pets, or predators.

Helen Booker speaking for RSPB said: "It's been a great year, and we're all delighted with how the chicks have done. In total 77 hatched and up to 73 fledged, so over the summer we only lost four chicks."

"It just goes to show that with the right amount of management and the support of our dedicated team of volunteers these birds can succeed. We really believe they are now well on the way to recovery on this wonderful part of the Dorset coast."

Chesil is South West England's only little tern colony and as recently as the late 1990s as many as 100 pairs bred there. The number dipped to only ten pairs in 2008 and the colony's productivity this summer is the result of eight years hard work by organisations involved in the Little Recovery Tern Project.

Jane White from Portland Court Leet, project partners who have offered further vital funding for next year's season, said: "We are really proud to be able to support this successful project that is really helping these amazing seabirds to make a strong recovery on the Fleet. There is still a lot to do though and the project will need continued support to build upon this success."

5 Ways to prepare your car for Winter

WINTER Motor Servicing WINTER

5. Top up vital fluids

Winter's salty roads and inclement weather mean you're likely to use far more windscreen washer fluid than normal, so make sure you've got plenty in the bottle. In the summer, you can use more water than washer fluid, but the fluid should be less dilute in winter because the fluid has an anti-freezing agent in it. It's also worth checking all the car's other vital fluids, such as oil and coolant.

4. Check your lights

With days getting shorter, now is a good time to make sure your lights are working. Switch the headlights on and walk around the car checking each bulb in turn, then ensure that the indicators are working and use a reflective surface such as a window or garage door to make sure the brake lights work. Many people forget that lights are not just for seeing with - it's important that you can be seen easily by other road users. If the weather turns snowy, rainy or foggy, turn your lights on to make sure everyone else knows you're there.

1. Fit Winter Tyres

When temperatures fall below seven degrees, winter tyres provide more grip than normal rubber, and their performance in snowy and wet conditions is vastly superior. In fact, they can make such a difference that countries including Germany and Austria have made them compulsory during the winter months. Beware, though, that you'll need to keep your summer tyres for when the weather improves, because above seven degrees, winter rubber becomes less effective. Rather than changing the tyres themselves, it's often easiest to put winter tyres on some cheap steel wheels and simply run the car on those between December and April before swapping back to your nice, shiny alloys.

3. Carry blankets & warm clothing

Getting stuck by the side of the road due to a breakdown or an accident is never a pleasant experience, but it's far worse in the depths of winter. It's important, therefore, that you carry some blankets and warm clothing to keep your body temperature up if you get stuck.

2. Snow Chains

Snow chains are rarely useful in the UK, but if you plan to take your car abroad, you'll find they're often a legal requirement. Don't use them unless you absolutely have to, though, because they tear up roads and offer far less grip than winter tyres unless there's snow under the wheels. It's also worth noting that some modern cars can't accommodate snow chains thanks to their huge alloy wheels, and that some alternatives, such as snow socks, are illegal in some countries.

Come and Hear Seldom Heard Voices

PEOPLE in the area have an opportunity to hear unique voices from the ground-breaking Seldom Heard Voices project. The Bournemouth University initiative has received international recognition for its work with marginalised groups, such as those having a disability, young people, the homeless and older citizens. It takes place on November 8th at the Electric Palace during BridLit, Bridport's Literary Festival. Tickets are free for the 2.30pm event, and it is advisable to get them in advance to avoid disappointment.

Work from Seldom Heard Voices has been presented to MPs and policy makers in a live performance at the Houses of Parliament, been internationally recognised by universities and academics, and has been cited by author and journalist, George Monbiot. He said of the project's work in sheltered accommodation, which focused on kindness,

'It's brilliant to see a local authority working with a university and housing association.... I strongly believe that the kindness initiative's use of poetry and theatre offers creative ways to raise awareness and bring people together.'

Seldom Heard Voices will include performances by young disabled artists Dave Young, Lauren Taylor and Hugo Lucas-Rowe, and is illuminated by specially-commissioned work from talented photographer, Brendan Buesnel. Charismatic performance poet and author, Jonny Fluffypunk will MC the afternoon, as well as reading from the work of homeless poets, and his own poetry.

Jonny has been central to the project, working with residents at St Paul's homeless hostel and Victoria Education Centre in Bournemouth, and sheltered housing projects in Dorset, helping people to express their experiences in poetic form. The afternoon will also be supported by poets from Apothecary, Bridport's thriving spoken word collective, themselves selected to represent seldom heard voices.

A pamphlet of the work from the writers at St Paul's, and the photographs of Brendan Buesnel, Seldom Heard Voices, will be launched at the event, and available for only £5. Proceeds from the sale of the book will be going to St Paul's homeless shelter.

'I'm both moved and humbled by the writing in Seldom Heard Voices,' said Ged Duncan of Apothecary. 'But also feel that it contains some outstanding poetry, coming from the depths of human experience. It makes this an unmissable event and a collectible pamphlet, both for those who care about people whose voices are rarely heard, but for those who love good art.'

The impact of Seldom Heard Voices on policy makers and academics has been summarised by Professor Lee-Ann Fenge of Bournemouth University,

'We have become convinced about the power of creative arts based methodologies to develop new insights with participants in a collaborative and participatory way. Arts-based research can shift our understanding of what counts as evidence.'

The event is funded by the Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC) Festival of Social Science, and sponsored by Bridport's vinyl record store, Clocktower Music.

Tickets are available from Bridport Tourist Information Centre, by phoning 01308 424 901 or online from the website www.bridportandwestbay.co.uk

Leaf by Niggle

Tolkien's play comes to Lyme Regis and Bridport

IN 1939, TOLKIEN was despairing of ever bringing his great work The Lord of the Rings to a conclusion. One morning he woke up with the story of Leaf by Niggle complete in his mind and wrote it down. This poignant tale – about an artist on a curious journey – is often seen as an allegory of the writer's own creative process and life.

Niggle is a painter. Not a very successful one, partly because he has so many other things to do. For some time he has been obsessed with one particular canvas – a curious picture of a tree with a vast landscape stretching out behind it. The painting keeps getting bigger and bigger, but Niggle has a journey to make.

Puppet State use intimate storytelling, object animation, music and sound to bring the story to life. The production appeals to adults and children from about the age of ten.

Surrounded by ladders, bicycles and easels Richard Medrington (the lead from the acclaimed The Man Who Planted Trees) recounts Tolkien's miniature masterpiece, with a soundtrack composed by Karine Polwart and Michael John McCarthy.

Richard Medrington performs Leaf by Niggle at the Marine Theatre on Friday, November 10th at 7.30pm. Tickets are £12 (concessions £10) available online at www.marinetheatre.com or by calling 01297 442138.

The show also comes to the Lyric Theatre, Bridport on Saturday, November 11th at 5pm. Tickets are £9 adults and £6 children, available from BearKat Bistro and Bridport Arts Centre by calling 01308 424204 or online at www.bridport-arts.com.

Great Scott! Time-travellers Morgan & West bring a magical extravaganza to Dorchester!

GREAT SCOTT! Time-travelling magicians Morgan & West bring a magical extravaganza to Dorchester Arts on Friday, November 3rd! Not content with their lot as the nineteenth century's greatest magic duo, this prestidigitatory pair present a conjuring spectacular to the audiences of the modern day.

Morgan & West have fooled Penn & Teller (Fool Us ITV 1), competed to be the Next Great Magician (ITV 1), and even attempted to escape The Slammer (CBBC). Join these practitioners of prestidigitation for an unforgettable evening of magic, mystery, and the unexplainable.

No future is left unseen and no timeline left unaltered as these temporal tricksters burst into the twenty-first century with a show brimming over with baffling magic, unparalleled precognitive powers, and a totally genuine ability to travel through time!

Tickets are £12 full price or £10 for Members of Dorchester Arts, under-18s or those on low income, and are available from the Dorchester Arts box office on 01305 266926, in person at the Corn Exchange (weekdays 10am - 4pm) or via www.dorchesterarts.org.uk. Members of Live for 5 aged 14 – 25 can buy tickets for £5 (see Dorchester Arts website for details).

WOW Stage Classic Musical Comedy at Weymouth Pavilion

NEXT week, WOW Youth Musical Theatre are bringing the hilarious musical comedy 'Me and My Girl' to the stage at Weymouth Pavilion theatre.

Set in the late 1930s, it tells the story of working class barrow boy, Bill Snibson, who inherits a title and estate, provided he's able to meet the terms of his inheritance. To do so, the posh aristocrats want him to ditch his cockney girlfriend and the clash of cultures leads to many comic moments. Fun musical numbers from the era, such as, 'The Lambeth Walk' and 'Leaning on a Lamp-post' enhance the feel good nature of the show.

WOW Chairman, Alan McKechean said, "This is our first British musical since 'Oliver!' five years ago. It will be performed with all the talent, energy and high performance standards that WOW are renowned for and will make a great night out."

Stephen Fry and director, Mike Okrent, revised 'Me and My Girl' in the 1980s and the West End production, starring Robert Lindsay and Emma Thompson, won two Olivier and three Tony awards.

Martyn Knight, who directed WOW's acclaimed productions of 'Sister Act' and 'Oliver!' has returned to direct this production.

Tickets for Me and My Girl are on sale now from Weymouth Pavilion box office or online at weymouthpavilion.com. The show runs from Wednesday 8th to Saturday, November 11th, evenings at 7.30pm with a matinee at 2.30pm on the Saturday. There are concessions for seniors and under 18s on the Wednesday evening and the matinee.

Joanna Cooke's 'Darker Days'

South west-based musician releases new single

RISING south west-based music artist Joanna Cooke brings another original song to the fore this week for radio airplay, download, streaming and video. "Darker Days", taken from the singer's second successful EP 'Wound Up', highlights Joanna's classy, soulful voice, with esteemed bluesman Vince Lee contributing featured artist vocal lines too on the powerful track.

2017 has been another busy and successful year for Joanna. By its end, she'll have played over 120 live shows, including 15 festivals, with a main stage appearance supporting Rag N Bone Man on his hand picked bill at The Wyldes, Cornwall.

Joanna's music has received strong support from BBC Introducing radio in both Devon and Cornwall. She's also scheduled to be BBC Introducing Artist of the Week on the 'Georgey Tonight' radio show to be broadcast on all 40 BBC local radio stations nationally in the week commencing 20 November, 2017.

There has been continuing success with Joanna's electronic dance music work too, with her high quality vocals and top-line writing skills being used internationally by producers. Tracks in Australia (Odd Mob) and South Africa (Garcon) enjoyed dance/club chart #1s and her earlier track with Brazil's Vintage Culture has now topped 4 million plays on YouTube.

Joanna Cooke plays live at The Bay, Lyme Regis on Saturday, December 23rd.

Enjoy a soulful jazz brunch with the sounds of Polly Josephine OXFORD-BASED singer Polly Josephine will be captivating listeners at the Marine Theatre's Jazz Brunch on Sunday, November 19th.

Polly evokes the emotion and dynamism of the great blues and jazz singers and the euphoria of soul and gospel. She brings alive the sophisticated lyrics of the likes of Cole Porter as sung in the smooth jazz tones of Ella Fitzgerald, the intense atmosphere of Nina Simone and the sheer joy of Etta James and Aretha Franklin's soul!

With a mixture of the best 1930s and 40s sultry jazz, uplifting 60s soul and moody blues, she transmits her own depth of feeling and excitement to the audience through the music she loves, with stylish piano accompaniment from Philip Clouts.

On hearing her sing, Scott Haynes of 'Music in Oxford' was moved to write: "Polly Josephine seriously impresses with her soulful voice and assured renditions of Jazz standards. Polly transports the audience to the smoky, late night Jazz club with her rich, chocolaty voice and relaxed performance. She hits every note with ease and makes it all seem effortless, which is a mark of a great talent".

Polly Josephine has been performing jazz, soul and blues for many years "Ever since I was a teenager I have been captivated by the emotion and depth of the great blues and jazz singers and the euphoria of soul and gospel," says Polly. "Aretha is my heroine and I try to recreate those songs with the same dynamism and excitement for the audience that I feel when I listen to them"

Polly plays at the Jazz Brunch at the Marine Theatre on Sunday, November 19th, on-stage: 11am-1pm (two sets with an interval). All tickets: £17 including hot brunch and coffee/tea, and a vegetarian option available. Pre-booking is essential, available from the box office on 01297 442138 or online at www.marinetheatre.com.

Lordleaze Hotel

THE Lordleaze Hotel, once an 18th century farmhouse, is a comfortable country hotel offering the finest standards with a warm and friendly atmosphere, ideal for both business and pleasure.

Recently upgraded high-speed Wi-Fi is available for free throughout the Hotel. We have an excellent restaurant & bar with lots of free parking.

Now in our 19th year, The Owen Family personally run the Lordleaze Hotel with attention to detail and a warm atmosphere.

Our restaurant has been awarded Taste of The West Gold for service, quality of the food and use of local produce.

2017 has also seen continued improvements with new soft furnishings in all of our 25 en-suite bedrooms and new beds for your comfort. Our main function room has also been redecorated along with the bar and lounge area bringing a more contemporary look.

Moving towards Christmas, what better way to look forward to the festivities than a warming Sunday Lunch set within peaceful surroundings and comfort! Lunch is served every Sunday from 12pm – 3pm, with main courses only costing £9 for adults and £5 for children – roasts are served with fresh vegetables and cauliflower cheese. Should you wish to make the most of your eating experience at the Lordleaze, starters and puddings are competitively priced at only £5 each. Due to popularity, we recommend booking in advance to avoid disappointment!

If you are looking to indulge during the week, afternoon tea is served everyday from 1pm – 6pm. We all look forward to welcoming you soon!

Spiced Christmas tree brownies

By Mima Sinclair

Ingredients

- 150g cook's Belgian dark chocolate (76% cocoa solids), roughly chopped
- 150g unsalted butter
- 3 large eggs
- 125g caster sugar
- 1 tsp vanilla extract
- zest and juice of 1 clementine
- 3 tbsp port
- ¼ tsp ground cinnamon
- a good pinch of ground cloves
- several gratings of nutmeg
- 100g plain flour
- ¼ tsp baking powder
- To decorate
- 75g royal icing sugar
- 1-2 tbsp gold and silver sprinkles
- 12 x Cadbury chocolate fingers

Directions

1. Preheat the oven to 180°C, fan 160°C, gas 4 and line the base and sides of a round 23cm-diameter springform tin.
2. Melt the chocolate and butter in a bowl over a saucepan of barely simmering water, making sure the bowl doesn't touch the water, or gently melt in the microwave (at a low setting); stir until smooth. Remove from the heat; cool for 20 minutes.
3. In a large bowl using a wooden spoon, beat the eggs, caster sugar and vanilla extract. Then beat in the clementine zest and juice, port and spices until just combined. In a separate bowl sift the flour, baking powder and ½ teaspoon salt. Pour the cooled chocolate mixture into the beaten eggs and mix until combined and smooth, then fold in the flour mix until just combined and there is no flour visible.
4. Pour the mixture into the lined tin. Transfer to the oven and bake for 20-30 minutes until set on top but still a little gooey inside. Leave to cool completely in the tin before unmoulding.
5. Cut the cooled brownie cake into 12 triangular tree-shaped wedges – you can slice off the rounded bottoms to give a straight edge, if you like.

6. Mix the icing sugar with 2 teaspoons of water, adding a drop or two more if needed to make a thick but runny icing. Drizzle or pipe over the brownie triangles in a zigzag pattern. Scatter with the star sprinkles and insert a chocolate finger to create a tree trunk. Leave the icing to set for at least 2 hours before serving.

Honiton Golf Club

Fancy golf? Be part of something special!

WITH a healthy membership Honiton Golf Club provides a diverse range of both golf and social activities focusing on fun, flexibility and family. Seasonal and themed dining events, discos and live music evenings, together with fun golf days, are interspersed with the more serious golf competitions and Club matches.

Honiton Golf Club has been continuously developing over 120+ years and can be best summarised as a traditional Club with strong established ties with the community offering golf for all.

The 18 hole golf course is immaculately maintained by our team of professional green staff, and provides a balanced challenge for both the established golfer, and just as importantly, is ideal for beginners. Visitors to the area can easily book a tee time on line via the front page link on their web site, or simply phone the Pro Shop on 01404 42943.

With ample free parking we offer the perfect solution to accommodate family parties, wakes or other gatherings. Christmas work parties are particularly popular!

A state of the art indoor practice facility means you can also try and improve your game, using the latest technology and remain dry at all times! Blessed with two qualified teaching professionals at the Club, golfing advice and encouragement is always available.

Christmas Pudding Cheesecake

By Tom Kerridge

Ingredients

For the base

- 200g ginger nut biscuits, crushed
- 30g light muscovado sugar
- 1 tsp flaky sea salt
- 110g unsalted butter, melted

For the filling

- 240g Christmas pudding
- 30ml brandy
- 30ml stout
- 1 orange zested
- 2 x 280g tubs full-fat cream cheese
- 300ml pot double cream
- 200g light muscovado sugar
- 2 vanilla pods, split and seeds scraped

To decorate

- 2 clementines
- light muscovado sugar, for sprinkling

Directions

1. To make the base, mix the gingernuts and sugar in a large bowl and sprinkle in the flaky salt. Pour in the melted butter and mix with a wooden spoon to form a biscuit crumb-like mixture. Press into a 20cm round springform cake tin, spreading the mixture in an even layer to the corners. Chill in the fridge for 30 mins until set.

2. Put the Christmas pudding, brandy, stout and orange zest in a blender, and whizz to a purée.

3. Using an electric hand whisk, beat the cream cheese with the double cream, sugar and vanilla seeds, then fold through the purée. Spread the mixture over the biscuit base and leave to chill in the fridge overnight.

4. The next day, peel the clementines, slice into rounds and place on a baking tray. Sprinkle them with sugar, then blowtorch until caramelised and leave to cool. Release the cheesecake from the tin and arrange the clementines on top. Will keep for three days in the fridge.

The Windwhistle Inn

Chocolate Profiterole Christmas puddings

By Sarah Randell

Ingredients

For the chocolate profiteroles

- 125g plain flour
- 25g cocoa
- 2 tsp caster sugar
- 100g butter, in small pieces
- 3 large eggs, lightly beaten

For the filling and topping

- 300ml whipping cream
- 1 tbsp icing sugar
- 1 tsp brandy (optional)
- 2 x 100g bars Belgian white chocolate, in pieces
- 50g ready-to-roll green icing
- 15g ready-to-roll red icing

Directions

1. Preheat the oven to 220°C, fan 200°C, gas 7. Sift the flour, cocoa and a pinch of salt onto a square of baking paper that you have folded in half and opened again.
2. Over a low heat and in a medium pan, gently heat 300ml water, the caster sugar and the butter. Once the butter has melted, turn the heat up and, as soon as the liquid comes to the boil, take the pan off the heat.
3. Pour the flour mix from the baking paper into the pan, then return the pan to the heat and cook for 1 minute, stirring all the time with a wooden spoon. You will need to beat the mix vigorously and keep going until it comes away from the sides of the pan – this will take a few minutes.
4. Take the pan off the heat and leave the mixture to cool for 5 minutes.

5. Next, little by little, beat in the eggs, making sure the egg is fully absorbed into the dough with each addition. You can do this with an electric mixer if you prefer. You will have a thick, glossy paste; leave it to cool slightly. Then, using a large piping bag with a 1.5-2cm plain nozzle, pipe 24 small balls onto a large, lined baking tray. If you don't have a piping bag, you can use a teaspoon – put 24 heaped teaspoonfuls of the mix on the lined tray and, with damp hands, roll each into a ball. Either way, smooth out the tops with a damp finger.

6. Bake the profiteroles for 25 minutes until puffed and risen, then remove from the oven. If you're going to fill them using a piping bag, quickly make a hole in the bottom of each one with a skewer then return them to the oven, on their sides, for 10 minutes. Alternatively, halve them and return them to the oven. After the 10 minutes, cool the profiteroles on a wire rack.

7. In a bowl, whip the cream with the icing sugar and brandy, if using. Then, using a piping bag, fill each profiterole. Or, fill the halved profiteroles with the whipped cream using a teaspoon.

8. Melt the white chocolate in a bowl over a pan of barely simmering water. Spoon a little of the chocolate over each profiterole and leave them to set in the fridge for 30 minutes.

9. To decorate, roll out the green icing and use a veined holly leaf cutter to stamp out 48 tiny holly leaves (or you can cut them by hand) and roll tiny berries from the red icing; use these to top each profiterole.

Bridge House

CHRISTMAS time at thirteenth century Bridge House in Beaminster always feels magical as you step into an interior of stone mullioned windows, flag stone floors and roaring inglenook fireplaces. The two AA rosette restaurant will not disappoint with its fine dining and seasonal dishes featuring the very best of local Dorset produce. The Christmas menu, available daily from the 23rd November until 22nd December, features wonderfully rich and seasonal roasted local duck with truffle fondant potato, sticky red cabbage and poached cherries, roasted loin of hake with clam marinere, local turkey and a vegetable Wellington with coconut and coriander cream. Starters include charred salmon with Jerusalem artichoke puree, hazelnuts & clementine dressing, beef carpaccio with blue cheese puffs and spiced parsnip soup with truffle oil. Fine dining doesn't get much better priced at £25 per person for a three course dinner from the Bridge Christmas menu.

Bridge House is also known for its fabulous cocktails designed and mixed by Lloyd Brown of the Grey Bear Bar Company, and featuring locally made spirits. Lloyd will be running cocktail parties every Thursday and Friday night from 23rd November – 22nd December, and guests will try three festive cocktails served with canapes for just £20 per person. The cocktail parties are perfect for office parties or festive gatherings, and groups of 15 or more will get their own private cocktail event at the same price of £20 per person. Cranberry Orange Shortbread Cookies

By Trish - Mum On Timeout

Ingredients

- 65g dried cranberries
- 150g sugar, divided
- 300g all purpose flour - spooned and leveled, not scooped
- 200g butter, cubed (and cold)
- 1 tsp almond extract
- zest of 1 orange
- 1 to 2 tbsp of fresh orange juice (optional)
- additional sugar to coat cookies before baking if desired

Directions

1. Line a baking sheet with parchment paper and set aside.
2. Combine cranberries and the sugar in a food processor and process just until the cranberries are broken down into smaller pieces. Set aside.
3. Combine flour and remaining sugar in a large bowl.
4. Use a pastry cutter to cut in butter. You want very fine crumbs. Stir in extract, cranberries and sugar mixture, orange zest and orange juice (optional).

5. Use your hands to knead the dough until it comes together and forms a ball. Work the dough until it comes together.
6. Shape dough into a log about two inches in a diameter and wrap in plastic wrap.
7. Refrigerate for two hours or up to 72 hours.
8. Preheat oven to 160°C. Cut slices of cookie dough about ¼ inch thick. Place about a half a cup of sugar in a bowl and coat the cookie slices with sugar.
9. Place cookies on baking sheet and bake for 12 to 15 minutes or just until cookies are set. Do not over bake.
10. Let cookies cool for several minutes on baking sheet before removing to cooling rack. Let cool completely.

Rudolph Peanut Butter Cookie Recipe

By www.thriftyjinx.com

Ingredients

- 100g Peanut Butter
- 100g Butter
- 100g Sugar
- 100g Brown Sugar
- 1 tsp Vanilla
- 1 Egg
- 160g Flour
- 1 tsp Baking Soda
- 1/2 tsp Salt
- 48 Red M&M's
- 96 Mini Chocolate Chips
- Mini Twist Pretzels

Directions

1. Break pretzels into pieces to use as antlers. Preheat oven to 180°C.
2. Cream together peanut butter, butter, sugar and brown sugar until smooth.
3. Add egg and vanilla and beat until smooth. Whisk together flour, baking soda and salt in a separate bowl.
4. Slowly add dry ingredients to the creamed mixture, beating until incorporated.
5. Roll into 1/2-3/4" balls and place on cookie sheet several inches apart.

6. Sprinkle with sugar and gently make an indentation slightly off the center of each cookie.
7. Bake 12-14 minutes.
8. Place an M&M in the indentation of each cookie.
9. Insert 2 mini chocolate chips (pointy side down) above the M&M to be the eyes.
10. Insert 2 pretzel pieces to be the antlers. If the antlers won't stick, place some chocolate chips in a sandwich bag and microwave 30 seconds and knead until soft. Clip the very tip of the corner and pipe onto cookie to act as glue.

Slow Cooker Spiced Wine

by Erin Clarke
www.wellplated.com

Ingredients

Serves 6

- 1 (750 ml) bottle red wine (choose something fruity but not too sweet. Merlot, Zinfandel, or Cabernet Sauvignon all work well)
- 1 pint apple cider
- 60ml cup honey
- 1 orange, zested and juiced
- 5 whole cloves
- 4 green cardamom pods
- 2 cinnamon sticks
- 1 whole star anise
- 60ml cup brandy
- Orange slices, for garnish
- Cinnamon sticks, for garnish

Directions

1. Add wine, cider, honey, orange zest, and orange juice to a large slow cooker. Stir to combine. Add the cloves, cardamom, cinnamon, and star anise. Cook on low until warm, 30 minutes to one hour, depending on your slow cooker. Stir in the brandy.
2. Ladle into mugs and serve with an orange slice and cinnamon sticks. To keep the wine warm, leave the slow cooker on the "keep warm" setting. If your slow cooker does not have a warm setting, alternate between "low" and "off."

White Christmas Mojito

By halfbakedharvest.com

Ingredients

- Juice of 1 lime
- 8 leaves mint
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 2 tablespoons white rum
- 1 tablespoon coconut rum
- 60ml cup canned coconut milk
- Sparkling water for topping
- Pomegranate arils for serving

Directions

1. In a glass, muddle the lime juice, sugar and mint leaves until the leaves have broken down. Fill the glass half way with ice.
2. In a blender, combine the white rum, coconut rum, and coconut milk and pulse until smooth. Pour over the ice and stir to combine. Top with sparkling water, mint and pomegranate. Drink!

Choral concert features modern pieces

WEYMOUTH Choral Society will present a concert featuring two modern works on Saturday, November 18th. Firstly, they'll be giving the Premiere performance of a new piece, 'Requiem' by Louise Dukes.

The Requiem was drafted in August 2014, created first and foremost as an expression of thanksgiving for the precious gift of life. Louise commented: 'It was originally conceived as a personal tribute to a friend who lost her battle with cancer, and whom had devoted her life to singing. The work reflects the journey of passing from the world as we know it, into the unseen heavenly realm.' In her music, Louise uses melodic themes and light scoring as she sets out to characterize love and hope amidst darkness and grief.

The other half of our concert will be a performance of John Rutter's 'Requiem' which was written in 1985. It is a musical setting of parts of the Latin Requiem with added psalms and biblical verses in English, featuring the anthem-like movement 'The Lord is my Shepherd' and a simple yet emotive scoring of the 'Pie Jesu' for soprano soloist. Rutter's 'Requiem' is also essentially optimistic in its message of hope and comfort.

The Society is eager to encourage young musicians and to provide performance opportunities for them. We will be joined at this concert by a group of vocalists from the Dorchester Area Schools Partnership and also several young instrumentalists who will play in the orchestra accompanying the Rutter. These players include Hannah McFarlane, the gifted cellist, who makes her third appearance with the choir and will feature in solo movements in both halves of the programme.

The concert takes place St John's Church, Weymouth on Saturday, November 18th. Tickets are £10, available from members, Harmony Music Dorchester, Weymouth Pavilion or on the door. For more details call 07712 135150 or visit www.weymouthchoralsociety.org.uk.

Christmas Craft and Gourmet Food Show

THE ever popular Christmas Craft and Gourmet Food Show, is returning to Kingston Maurward House on November 4th and 5th. The fair is open between 10am and 5pm on both days.

This year the show has even more stands with the addition of a larger food and craft marquee. With over 80 craft and food stands selling an amazing variety of brilliant crafts and artisan foods, this really is the perfect place to have a wonderful day out whilst starting your Christmas shopping, and being a fun day out for the whole family.

Christmas ideas start with superb craft products, including glassware, wooden toys and hand turned bowls, jewellery, photographic prints, cosmetics, and Christmas decorations to name but a few of the high quality assortment of crafts.

In the Gourmet Food Hall you can taste and purchase delightful Artisan food produce including homemade Christmas puddings, cakes, pies, vinegars, oils, Mediterranean foods, speciality breads and charcuterie. We also have a fantastic selection of liquors, Dorset gin, forager spirits, ciders and wines. Everything to make a perfect Christmas. Stop and enjoy a reviving freshly made coffee before carrying on with your shopping spree.

In front of the house there are more craft as well as hot food stands where you can sit and enjoy scrumptious wraps, crepes and mulled wine.

Admission to the fair is only £3.00 for adults, £2.50 for concessions whilst children under 16 are admitted for free.

Come early, stay late. The parking is free and refreshments are served all day.

Also a massive thank you to our sponsors DOMVS and The Highbrow Clinic.

Controversial Comic Andrew Lawrence at the Marine Theatre

FOLLOWING his comments on recent events you might have read about him recently in the news as comic Andrew Lawrence has a knack for attracting attention.

He's the star of BBC1's Live at The Apollo, Michael McIntyre's Roadshow and Sky Arts' The Outcast Comic, as well as the hugely successful self-penned BBC Radio 4 series, There Is No Escape. Without question the most subversive voice in UK comedy right now presents an all new, riotously funny set of jokes, poking fun at Liberal pretensions, PC hysteria and his own awful parenting skills. The Happy Accident Tour is a gag packed stand-up show about coming to terms with fatherhood.

Andrew Lawrence comes to the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis this Friday, November 3rd, at 8pm.

Tickets are £16 and £14 concessions, available by calling 01297 442138 or online at www.marinetheatre.com

Dyad's Jane Eyre in Dorchester

STRUGGLING to think, live and love beyond the stifling expectations of duty, class and convention, governess Jane Eyre and Master Edward Rochester take a dark journey towards sensual and intellectual liberation in Dyad Production's Jane Eyre at Dorchester Arts on Saturday, November 4th.

Told through Jane's eyes, English literature's most celebrated autobiographical novel shocked the Victorians, and Charlotte Brontë's gothic subversion of fairy-tale romance is now distilled for the stage – under its full title – by writer/director Elton Townend Jones. Performer Rebecca Vaughan embodies everywoman Jane – and several other characters – in this intimate study of love's realities.

Tickets are £13 full price or £11 for Members of Dorchester Arts, under-18s or those on low income, and are available from the Dorchester Arts box office on 01305 266926, in person at the Corn Exchange (weekdays 10am - 4pm) or via www.dorchesterarts.org.uk. Members of Live for 5 aged 14 – 25 can buy tickets for £5 (see Dorchester Arts website for details).

Megan Dunford, Exhibitions Officer said "It's not often that you can get one of a kind piece of art to hang on your wall for £50. You also have the warm feeling that comes from knowing that you supported your local Arts Centre. This is one of the most anticipated days of the year and there are queues outside, it's a great day for everyone who loves art"

Hurricane Michael storms into Bridport

■ Michael Fish and Michael Phish!

1987. STORM. BIGGUN. One man saw it coming. But then he didn't. This is his story. This is Michael Phish.

Thirty years on from the Great Storm of 1987 Russell Layton's critically acclaimed comedy theatre production: Hurricane Michael comes to Bridport.

On October 15th 1987, the absent father of all storms vented apocalyptic fury upon the south-east corner of the Kingdom of United. In a televised address to the nation celebrity meteorologist and national treasure Michael Phish foresaw a different forecast. Why did this titan of meteorology foresee its arrival but choose to tell a different story? Experience first-hand the Machiavellian derring-do of 80s corporate skulduggery as they attempt to silence the World's greatest weather-forecaster. Welcome to this world exclusive. The truth behind the Great Storm of 1987! Based on the infamous meteorological events, the show follows Fish's alter ego, Michael Phish and the parallel happenings of the Kingdom of United, 1987.

Hurricane Michael comes to Bridport on Saturday, November 11th at 8pm. Tickets are £13 and £11, available by calling 01308 424204 or online at the website www.bridport-arts.com

Dark and compelling physical theatre

EDITH Cole worked a dead-end job in a funeral parlour. Ralph Conti worked wealthy widows for a quick buck. Neither expected to fall in love. But once they did they just kept on falling ...

Head to Bridport Arts Centre for a story inspired by the true story of the 'Lonely Hearts Killers' a pair of latter-day Macbeths who gripped the imagination of 1950s America. 'Hummingbird' is dark compelling physical theatre.

Hummingbird uses a lush soundscape of songs jingles adverts and other Americana to conjure up the post-war era. This also casts light on the motivation of a couple that believes owning the right car will buy them entry into a society that has rejected them.

The show is brought to us by lecoq-trained Tooth+Nail blend acrobatics and action with a striking visual style to tell a deviously touching tale of love and murder. Hummingbird comes to Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, November 17th at 7.30pm.

The key to finding your perfect home

HOW TO BRING CALM TO ROOMS WITH THE NEWEST COLOUR TREND - HEART WOOD

Gabrielle Fagan dips into the latest paint shade set to star in homes and shows you how to use it...

Colour is a powerful mood enhancer. If you're looking for a feeling of calm, warmth and reassurance (that's all of us, right?) you could consider Heart Wood, the Dulux Colour of the Year for 2018.

The paint experts claim this smoky, gentle neutral with a tinge of purple heather can not only bring a sense of comfort, harmony and balance, but is so versatile it blends beautifully with other fashionable palettes, from inky blues and purples through to chocolate and pinks.

If it does, indeed, do what it says on the tin, it could just be an easy way to paint your way to a peaceful paradise....

Create light

"Heart Wood can be described as a warm neutral - a colour inspired by natural materials, which contain hints of pink, gold or yellow," explains Marianne Shillingford,

By Gabrielle Fagan, Press Association

creative director, Dulux.

"It can appear subtly different in changing light conditions, with notes of sophisticated 'millennial pink' through to a warm grey coming to the forefront. The shade has a subtle hint of heather, which creates a cosy, relaxed and welcoming look. It works perfectly with natural materials, woods and leather, and there's a supporting palette of seven colours, from stunning Blackberry Bush to delicate Blossom Tree."

TIP: "Heart Wood can be used on all walls, or used as a band of colour for the lower part of a wall, as a feature (see main image)," says Shillingford. Alternatively, bring the shade into an existing scheme by using it to paint architectural features and furniture, and enhance the look with accessories.

Make it mellow and moody

"If you're looking to give a bit of a kick to this laid-back hue, pair with a flash of hot pink or a rich, deep navy," says Nadia McCowan Hill, resident style advisor, Wayfair. "This will take the colour from grown-up to glamorous, especially if you add accents and accessories in on-trend gold or copper, and use tactile fabrics like velvet and linen for a luxurious touch."

"This neutral, which sits somewhere between smoky taupe and soft mink, can conjure a serene space that's easy on the eye and instantly relaxing - perfect for a bedroom."

TIP: "Lovers of more natural styling may prefer to go 'au naturel' and pair the shade with weathered wood furniture, rattan and sea grass touches, as well as brushed cotton and wool fabrics," advises Nadia.

ESTABLISHED 1858

VENI VIDI VICI ...

A unique opportunity to own a Roman Hill Fort with panoramic views over the beautiful Dorset countryside and coastline. Built by the Second Legion during the Roman occupation following the invasion in AD43, Waddon Hill Fort housed a mixed garrison of legionaries and cavalry whilst they tried to subdue the local Durotriges tribe. Abandoned after the revolt led by Queen Boudica of the Iceni, this rare monument is part of Stoke Knapp Farm, Stoke Abbot, which comes to the open market for the first time in over a hundred years. A handsome early 18th century farmhouse listed Grade II, with golden ham stone elevations under a slate roof. The house has a wealth of original features and requires complete renovation. To the rear of the house is the farmyard with a courtyard of mainly traditional buildings and the dilapidated modern farm buildings lie beyond. The land comprises productive pasture and arable land, including Waddon Hill Fort, which has been used for events such as weddings in the past.

Lot A - Farmhouse, farm buildings and 85.29 acres (34.52 ha) of pasture land with a guide price of £800,000. A further 45.10 acres (18.25ha) of land is available in five lots.

For Sale by Public Auction at The Guildhall, Axminster on Thursday 30th November 2017, 2:00pm.

Taking the compact-SUV segment by storm – the MG ZS

WITH sales of Compact-SUV and small Crossovers continuing to grow across Europe, up 10% in the first half of 2017*, MG Motor UK has increased its offering in the market with its all-new MG ZS. A global car which has been reengineered specifically for the UK audience, the MG ZS demonstrates MG's continued commitment to design excellence, engineering innovation and affordable style.

Available from UK dealers as of 1st November 2017, the MG ZS has already attracted significant attention since it was officially unveiled at the London Motor Show earlier this year. The intervening six months has seen thousands of people register their interest in the car, with dealers expecting this to translate to record sales figures in the latter part of the year.

With the entry-level model available on the road from just £12,495 – around £2,500 more affordable than the equivalent Nissan Juke, and other competitors; the MG ZS also launches with a host of competitive finance offers.

At just £199 per month for the top-of-the-range Exclusive manual, with £3,550 deposit, 0% finance, the MG ZS represents outstanding style and exceptional value.

Guaranteed for the future

Coming with one of the longest fully transferable warranties in its class, the MG ZS offers a 7 year/80,000-mile warranty as standard across all variants. Testament to MG's confidence in the quality of its design, engineering and manufacturing operations, this industry-beating warranty sees MG back up its promise of quality with a full 7 year manufacturer warranty, with rivals such as SsangYong, Hyundai and Toyota only providing 5 years.

Driving excellence with three unique steering modes

The MG ZS is a global car with a distinct British feel. Completely reengineered by the UK engineering team, this MG ZS has been tested on UK roads and developed for UK drivers. As such, the Excite and Exclusive models come with three power-assisted steering modes – Urban, Normal and Dynamic – which are designed to give the driver complete control over their ride.

While Urban steering offers a lighter and quicker response at low speeds and when parking, the Dynamic mode is designed to increase the steering effort, deliver a higher damping effect and increase the centre definition at medium and high vehicle speeds. The Normal steering option delivers a great fit to MG's tailored suspension set-up and vehicle dynamics response for drivers who want to maintain a consistent ride.

Dynamic design

The MG ZS showcases the future design direction for MG, expressing an 'Emotional Dynamism' which is set to feature across all upcoming models. A distinctive grille, increased MG branding and delicate nose gives the car a refined look that is carried through to its sweeping corners and solid backend. A combination of quality and premium finish has been at the heart of MG's design philosophy, with every surface, material and fitting selected for its visual impact, as well as durability and longevity.

The MG ZS, as standard in Arctic White, also comes with a range of colours and metallic options – Laser Blue, Black Pearl, Cosmic Silver and Spiced Orange, as well as a specially-developed tri coat Dynamic Red paint option. Headlights are also a key design feature, with a massive 23 LEDs creating a design statement in each one and day/dusk sensors, even on the entry-level Explore model.

An engine for the future

Customers can choose from a 1.5 DOHC VTI-tech, four-cylinder engine with smooth and responsive five-speed manual gearbox, or a 1.0 GDI turbocharged, three-cylinder version of the engine which complements the six-speed automatic gearbox option to produce a fast-paced and dynamic ride for drivers looking to experience a little extra.

With a larger fuel tank than the equivalent Nissan Juke, the MG ZS offers increased range, less need to fill the tank, lower CO₂ emissions and an improved performance – with the MG ZS delivering 1-100kph in 10.9 seconds, compared to 12.0 seconds for its rival.

From testing to driveway – MG ZS availability in the UK

Having been tested to extremes in Sweden at minus 35 degrees Celsius, Spain at 42 degrees Celsius, Austria at exceptionally high altitudes and Wales in the typical British drizzle, MG is confident its Compact-SUV can stand up to any challenge. Available at more than 80 MG dealerships across the UK – and with a network that is still growing, consumers can get their hands on the exciting new MG ZS from November 2017.

Pickup meets lifestyle: The new Mercedes-Benz X-Class

THE NEW Mercedes-Benz X-Class is available to purchase from £27,310 excl. VAT, with first deliveries for vehicles ordered now expected in January 2018.

All UK vehicles are doublecab, with 4MATIC selectable all-wheel drive and low-range, drive selection mode, with double wishbone front suspension, and multi-link rear suspension, all as standard.

Customers can choose from three distinct model lines to suit different lifestyles and work environments: the PURE basic variant for classic robust use, PROGRESSIVE for higher requirements in terms of quality feel and comfort, and POWER as the high-end variant for urban lifestyles.

Engines and transmissions

The X-Class is initially offered with a choice of two engines: the X 220 d 4MATIC 4-cylinder 2.3l diesel with common-rail and turbocharger, offering 163hp (120kW), or the X 250 d 4MATIC 4-cylinder 2.3l diesel with common-rail and twin-stage turbocharger, offering 190hp (140kW).

The X 220 d 4MATIC comes with a six-speed manual transmission in a choice of PURE or PROGRESSIVE model lines.

The X 250 d 4MATIC is available in all three model lines: PURE, PROGRESSIVE and POWER, with a seven-speed automatic gearbox available.

PURE

The entry-level X-Class PURE model is only available with the six-speed manual transmission 220 d 4MATIC engine, and offers a rear bumper with integrated step, halogen headlights and a radiator grille with matt black finish.

Inside, the PURE model offers a manually adjustable driver and passenger seat in Tunja black fabric upholstery, with a large storage compartment in the centre console, incorporating an armrest and cupholder. The model also offers semi-automatic air-conditioning with high gloss black details in the air vents.

X-Class PURE models are offered with 17-inch steel wheels as standard.

PROGRESSIVE

The mid-level X-Class, which is £1,200 excl. VAT above the PURE model, is offered with a choice of either the 220 d 4MATIC engine, or the uprated 250 d 4MATIC engine.

The PROGRESSIVE model line also offers painted bumpers with a simulated under guard in matt black; aluminium door sills featuring 'Mercedes-Benz' lettering; chrome door handles; load securing rail system; heated exterior mirrors; and a radiator grille with iridium silver matt finish.

Inside, the PROGRESSIVE model comes with black fabric upholstery and an aluminium trim, with automatic dimming interior mirror with integrated compass function, illuminated sun visors, lighting for the front footwell and exit lamps, and chrome air vents.

X-Class PROGRESSIVE models are offered with 17-inch six-twin-spoke light-alloy wheels in vanadium silver as standard.

POWER

The high-level X-Class, which is £3,500 excl. VAT above the PROGRESSIVE model, is offered in conjunction with the 250 d 4MATIC engine only, and features painted bumpers with simulated under guard in chrome; a rear bumper in chrome with integrated step; fog lights with chrome surround; shoulder line trim strips in chrome; LED high-performance headlights with cleaning system; LED tail lights; electrically folding exterior mirrors; and KEYLESS GO, all as standard.

Inside, the POWER line comes with eight-way electrically adjustable driver and front passenger seats as standard, with ARTICO leather and DINAMICA microfiber upholstery, with an ARTICO leather dashboard with topstitching, complimented by a black, high-gloss interior trim.

X-Class POWER models are offered with 18-inch six-twin-spoke light-alloy wheels in himalaya grey, as standard.

Option packages

With seven option packages, the X-Class can be customised to suit the individual requirements of the owner.

Style Package, specifically developed for the POWER model line, includes privacy glass; electric rear windows; running boards; roof rails; and 19-inch six twin-spoke light alloy wheels (£1,345 excl. VAT).

Style Package for the PROGRESSIVE model adds LED high-performance headlights with LED daytime running lights; LED tail lights; privacy glass; running boards; roof rails; and 18-inch six twin-spoke light alloy wheels (£2,190 excl. VAT).

As an interior pack for the PROGRESSIVE model, Comfort Package features eight-way electrically adjustable driver and front passenger seat with lumbar adjustment; THERMOTRONIC automatic climate control; ARTICO leather with DINAMICA microfiber upholstery; and a storage net for the passenger footwell (£1,235 excl. VAT).

Parking Package, which is available on the PROGRESSIVE and POWER models, includes PARKTRONIC parking sensors and 360° camera, which features networked cameras in the front grille, wing mirrors and tailgate to capture a complete bird's-eye view of the vehicle's immediate surroundings to assist in avoiding obstacles and pedestrians when parking (£570 excl. VAT).

Plus Package is offered on the PURE model, and features PARKTRONIC parking sensors and load rail securing system (£700 excl. VAT).

Winter Package, available across all three model lines, adds heated seats and heated washer fluid jets (£340 excl. VAT), while Smoker Package adds an ashtray for the cupholder and lighter in the 12V socket (£30 excl. VAT).

Optional extras

A differential lock for the rear axle to enhance off-roading capabilities in mud, sand or snow is available for £495 excl. VAT, while increased ground clearance by 20mm can be added for £220 excl. VAT.

With three standard non-metallic paint choices (danakil red, chisana white and granite green), metallic paint can be added for £510 excl. VAT, with a choice of kabora black, axinit bronze, cavansite blue, bering white, rock grey and diamond silver.

The X-Class is sold exclusively via the Mercedes-Benz Vans nationwide Dealer Network. For more information about the Network, or about the X-Class please visit: www.MBVans.co.uk.

Seasiders schooled by University

Ton-up for Rendell • Lyme reserves first league defeat

DEVON & EXETER LEAGUE

EXETER UNIVERSITY 4 LYME REGIS 1
Division 1

THE Seasiders slumped to a 4-1 defeat at the University, and their lead at the top of the league table is now down to a point over Lapford, who won a gripping game against Perry Street 4-3.

The Lyme first eleven took the lead through Fred Parsons, who neatly side footed in from the edge of the area after Sam Pollard-Jones challenged the Uni keeper.

The University side moved the ball around efficiently, playing a neat passing game, and equalised just before half time through a back post header.

The second half started well for the visiting Seasiders, but it was the hosts who grabbed the decisive third goal of the game, after a throw in wasn't properly dealt with by the Lyme back line.

The Seasiders kept pushing for an equaliser, with midfielder Rob Fellingham thudding a shot against the bar. But with 20 minutes left to play, Uni extended their lead thanks to a towering header from a corner crashing off the bar and in.

Again the visitors pushed on to try and get back in the game, but with numbers committed, the Exeter side wrapped the game up with a fourth, having dismissed Parsons in the midfield.

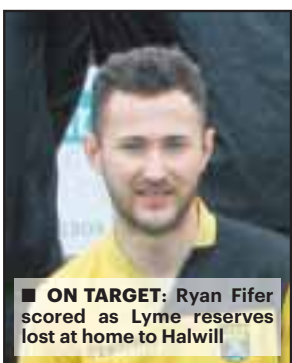

The Seasiders travel to Shaftesbury Town for a tough Dorset Senior Trophy second round tie this Saturday, kick off 1.30pm.

Division 5

LYME Reserves' unbeaten league start came to an end at the Davey Fort this Saturday.

Ryan Fifer and Alistair Rattenbury scored the goals for the home side, negated by a hat trick from Halwill forward Darren Webber.

The resses will also be without tough-tackling defender Mark Batey, who was shown a straight red for violent conduct during Saturday's encounter, and he will now miss three games.

The Seasiders second string remain in top spot, with a game in hand over their nearest rivals Culm United and Hemyock.

The Reserves will look to regain their winning ways as they host lowly Offwell Rangers this Saturday, 2.15pm kick off.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

Round up

with Howard Larcombe

MISTERTON began life under new manager Jason Mallett in perfect fashion.

They clinched a 3-2 penalty shoot-out win at Chard United in the quarter-finals of the Coronation Cup after the teams had finished up 2-2 after extra-time.

The revised semi-final draw now reads: Winsham United v Merriott Rovers or Pymore; Barrington v Misterton.

Division One Cup holders Forton Rangers were awarded a free passage into the semi-finals of the competition when Drimpton once again disappointingly pulled their team out of the league. After having an excellent 2015-16 campaign Drimpton, who suffered a mass exodus of players, folded during last season and have never fully recovered.

Forton's opponents in the semi-final will be Farway United who had few problems in disposing of Shepton Beauchamp Reserves 4-0. Farway only had the bare 11 players but were 3-0 up inside 15 minutes through Liam Spiller, Jack Murrell and Ben Fullick.

Spiller netted his second near the end while Farway chairman Steve Loud picked out Billy Reed as his man of the match after he climbed off his hospital bed to play a full 90 minutes.

■ RETURN: James Loveridge scored on his return for an 18-month ACL injury layoff

Meanwhile Waytown Hounds won 3-0 at 2013-14 champions Perry Street Reserves and will now travel to face Halstock with a place in the final at stake. A three-goal second-half blitz from Jon Legg (2) and James Loveridge, returning after an 18-month lay-off with an ACL injury, saw the Hounds through.

The semi-final draw is: Halstock v Waytown Hounds; Farway United v Forton Rangers.

In the Premier Division, Shepton Beauchamp ended a four-game losing slump in style with a 6-0 hammering of hosts Combe Reserves, who are yet to bank a point.

Struggling Pymore failed to raise a team for the visit of Barrington, who signed former Misterton player-manager Scott Jennings in midweek. The 31-year-old has almost 200 PSDL goals to his name having previously played for Merriott Rovers, Ilminster Town, Shepton Beauchamp and Crewkerne Town.

West & Middle Chinnock's first home league match ended in a narrow 4-3 defeat at the hands of Merriott Rovers, who moved six points clear at the top spot. Rovers flew out of the blocks and were 3-0 up inside ten minutes through Dave John, Liam Riste and Craig Gosney. But the Chins recovered and pulled one back courtesy of Liam Bennett before half-time.

A George Trott free-kick then cut the deficit to 3-2 before Riste scored his second and Merriott's fourth five minutes from time.

The hosts kept battling away and Alex Eckland netted their third late on, while Merriott manager Matt Bisgrove picked out 16-year-old Jake Pippard as his man of the match.

South Petherton remain in second spot after a 5-1 win over Winsham United. Pethy led 2-0 through Dave Smith and Mark Tweedie at half-time and while the visitors pulled one back, Smith went on to score twice more to complete his hat-trick and former Netherbury winger Mark Cuff made it 5-1 late on.

Ilminster Town Colts extended their unbeaten league run to nine matches with a 3-1 win over lowly Chard Rangers in Division One.

Leaders Halstock have emerged as the team to beat after thrashing Uplyme 6-0 at Venlake. James Parrett led the way with a treble while Ben Brister bagged a brace and Darren House had the other.

Division Two pacesetters Forton Rangers Reserves remain unbeaten after a 2-1 win over South Petherton Reserves.

Charmouth bounced back from last week's defeat with a 3-0 win at Winsham United Reserves who have now lost six on the spin. Dan Rendell opened the scoring with his 100th goal for the club and added number two before Brin Seward, on target for the seventh game in succession, rounded things off. Top scorers in the entire league Thorncombe are up to third after an 8-3 win over Kingsbury who had Dan Neate, Jack French and Jack Thompson scoring their consolations.

■ 100 CLUB: Dan Rendell scored his 100th and 101st goals for Charmouth

Delighted Donyatt United emerged with all three points from a top-versus-second clash in Division Three with Ilminster

■ GOAL: Mark Cuff got the consolation as Netherbury were beaten 5-1 by South Petherton.

Town A, who finally lost their 100 per cent record via the 3-2 defeat.

Merriott Dynamos are hot on the heels of the leading pair thanks to a 3-1 win over Crewkerne Rangers Reserves.

Netherbury Reserves were the day's top scorers as they demolished Chard Rangers Res 10-0.

Chard United All Stars couldn't raise a team for their fixture with Lyme Rovers. The Rovers welcome Crewkerne Rangers in the second round of the Daisy Hutchings Cup this Saturday, kick off 2pm at Woodroffe School.

Wyatt flies to the Hawks' rescue

West Dorset Hawks 3
Caradon 2

Southern 2
WITH West Dorset Hawks looking for their first win of the season and still marred by injuries, they were glad to welcome back Richard Puzey and Russell Coombs, and Dan Wyatt who flew in on Saturday morning fresh from holiday.

For once the Hawks had some luck on their side, with the Cornish visitors only having ten men.

Caradon defended stoically as West Dorset attacked from the start with both Simon Wakely and Coombs going close, and after 20 minutes they made a rare break into the hosts half which resulted in them taking the lead in bizarre fashion.

A loose ball which should have been a routine clearance caused a misunderstanding between Julian May and keeper Tom Lowe who both paused expecting the other to clear. As a result the ball hit the post and rebounded back into the path of the hungry Caradon left winger who deftly jabbed it back toward the goal. May in making a desperate dive to recover his error was too far away to stop it with his stick and the ball ended hitting his hand resulting in a penalty flick which was converted.

This reversal saw Hawks move up a gear, and when Rick Steele won a short corner, Wyatt smashed it home to level the scores at halftime.

Early in second half the Hawks had more possession and chances in open play, but it was a short corner won by Charlie Davies which allowed Wyatt to convert a carbon copy of the first, to take the lead.

Midway through the half West Dorset were awarded another short corner, which Wyatt clinically converted for his hat trick; the visiting keeper and defence unable to deal with the raw speed and power of Wyatt's striking.

After wave after wave, a marking error allowed a player to run through with free shot on goal to reduce the deficit, but the Hawks held on to record their first win on the season.

Skipper Steel said: "That was a tough game. We relaxed a bit at 3-1 and allowed them back into the game and made it more difficult than it needed to be, but we showed spirit to hang on."

WEST Dorset A suffered a second 2-0 defeat in a row, this time to a more experienced Taunton CS side.

Struggling for numbers, the Hawks had six players of 14-years old or younger, and they all gave an excellent account of themselves.

The home side started the more dominant, and pressured the Hawks defence persistently for the opening quarter, as the experienced back line of Giles Maltby, Lee Connolly, Rich Wilson completed by 13-year old Sam Dormer protected keeper Alex Drew very well, but the Hawks finally conceded on the 20 minute mark.

Usual first team player Rick Dormer provided rare assistance in defence, and his defensive inexperience proved costly, as a half-hearted clearance fell to an opposition player in space, who drilled an unstoppable shot to the near post.

The tables then turned, and the Hawks enjoyed a decent spell of possession through to half time.

The midfield of Kieran Connolly, Dormer, Will Maltby and Ollie Bareham pressured the home team into mistakes, and started to provide ammunition for the front two pairing of Jack Dormer and his friend Toby.

Unfortunately, the increased pressure didn't pay off, and the Hawks went into the break 0-1 down.

As so often happens, the second half started as the first finished, with the Hawks finding decent spells of the possession but unable to convert.

The Dormer clan were the heartbeat of each Hawk attacked but it was the home team that scored again on the break.

A looping ball over G Maltby sat up perfectly for the Taunton striker to hit first time into the bottom corner.

The Hawks continued to press but just couldn't find the target.

It was an excellent team performance, which no doubt would have a different score line four years into the future.

Hawks A entertain Sidmouth and Ottery C this Saturday, and must secure a win to avoid being dragged into the relegation fight.

Team: Alex Drew, Giles Maltby, Lee Connolly, Kieran Connolly, Ollie Bareham, Will Maltby, Rich Wilson, Rick Dormer, Jack Dormer, Sam Dormer, Toby Dormer.

Tee-off - golf news

Septuagenarians finally play trophy comp

LYME REGIS

with Richard Jackman

IN DIVISION 1 of the Sunday Stableford, James Lambert had a remarkably good, steady front 9 of 22 points and despite falling away for 4 holes recovered with an excellent birdie on the 14th, to score 17 on the back nine and win with 39 points. Hard on his heels was Craig McGown with 2 solid halves to score 38 points, just one better than new vice captain Gareth Williams in 3rd.

In Division 2 Andrew Brown had an extraordinary round picking up 25 points on the front nine which included 8 points on 2 successive holes. The back nine was not so good with 3 'blobs', but when he scored, he did well, adding 16 to his total for the highest score of the day with 41. Second placed Philip Rea played some good golf, particularly on the back 9 to score 39 points two better than club president John Owen on 37 in 3rd.

Lyme ladies played their October Stableford in tough conditions and in division 1 Jean Jolley had a good, consistent, front 9 scoring 19 well earned points finishing as winner on 35 points, with Marilyn Wilson 2nd on 32, and Anne Humphreys 3rd on 31. Division 2 winner and with the best score of the day was the ever improving Ros Clemmans whose 39 points showed grit and determination despite not scoring on 2 holes, a great performance that sees her handicap head down. Julie Duke was second on 29, Julia Coote 3rd on 28.

At the fourth attempt the Septuagenarians played their trophy competition and in a reduced field Richard Jackman made hay with a gritty 39 points ahead of David Binns, 35 and Roger Turner, 34 in 3rd.

New junior captain Dominic Beardwood was in determined form as he rallied very well from a disappointing front 9 to finish with 37 points to win the Junior Stableford.

THE men enjoyed another fine autumn day if a little breezy for their Sunday competition which was the first part of the Mason Shield, a 4BBB Stableford.

It was very tight at the top with Ian Thacker(15) and Nathan Dunford(18) coming out the leaders with 42 points. One point behind with 41 points were Terry Cleal(19) and Grant Gerard(12). In the third place with 40 points was the team

Local swimmers enjoy gala experience

WEST Dorset Swimming Club recently took part in the annual Southern Junior League competition where local teams of nine to 12 year-olds compete against each other over three galas.

For many, this is their first experience of competitive swimming.

The SWS Club were fortunate to host all three galas at 1610 Sports Centre and welcomed Chard, Devonport Royals and Tornadoes of South Dorset swimming clubs.

In round two the competition comprised Chard, North Dorset Turbos and Tornadoes of South Dorset and the final gala brought the visit of Yeovil, Poole and Chard.

WDESC won two of the three galas overall.

WDESC Coach Dave McRobbie said: "I couldn't be prouder of all the teams their efforts over the three events. We are extremely delighted with the girls 12 years relay team, which won all their events in all the three galas."

Sunderland returns to take the title

SAM Sunderland returned to race on Weymouth Beach for the first time in 13 years to take the Expert title in the 2017 AMCA Weymouth Beach Motocross.

Red Bull KTM star Sunderland who was born in Poole, remembers racing a 125cc on the sands as a 15-year-old.

Returning as the winner of the 2017 Dakar Rally, he won two challenging races to take the title in front of a large crowd lining the Esplanade who had gathered to see an exciting days racing on a circuit built by organising club Purbeck MXC and involving a massive 340 riders.

The winner of a capacity entry Junior class was Sam Wicks, and Harry Kimber won the Seniors competition.

Such was the success of the event that the organising club were able to hand over a cheque for a whopping £1,700 to the Weymouth and Portland Lions club.

A lesson in finishing for the Seasideers

IT WAS a bad week at the office for the Seasideers and the Swallows this week, but Charmouth got back to winning ways.

Lyme's first string were given a free lesson on their visit to Exeter University, going down 4-1, having led early in the game.

Fred Parsons grabbed the goal, slotting in coolly from 18 yards after Sam Pollard-Jones challenged the Uni keeper.

The Seasideers were left to lament being wasteful series of chances, with the efficient Uni side showing ruthless, clinical finishing. Robin Townsend's men face a difficult distraction from the league as they travel to Shaftesbury Town for a second round Dorset Senior Trophy match.

The reserve side also slipped to a disappointing home defeat to Halwill. The Seasideers were defending an unbeaten start, but goals from Ryan Fifer and Alistair Rattenbury weren't enough, with Halwill's Darren Webster bagging a hat-trick, as the home side lost 3-2. Mark Batey saw red for a rash challenge, and will now miss three games due to a ban for violent conduct.

Uplyme were thrashed by Perry Street League Division One leaders Halstock on home soil at Venlake. Halstock's James parrett grabbed a treble.

One bright note for the local sides saw Charmouth bounce back from last week's defeat to Thorncombe with a 3-0 win over Winsham United Reserves, keeping the Robins very much still in the Division Two title hunt. Dan Rendell grabbed his 100th and 101st Charmouth goals on the day, and Brin Seward scored the third.

♦ ALL THE PRESIDENT'S MEN: The President's Men play from the Ship Inn in Division Two of the Lyme Regis & District Skittles League and recently produced their first league win of the new season.
